MONTREAL GO GLOBAL EXPO

(www.letsoglobal.ca)

Saturday, February 8, 2020

Centre St Jax, Montréal (Metro: Guy-Concordia)

Are you interested in working, volunteering, studying or living overseas? Check out opportunities in more than 100 countries at the 2020 Go Global Expo!

Taking place Saturday, February 8 at Centre St Jax in downtown Montreal, this free event will showcase:

- Volunteer-sending organizations, universities from around the world, non-profit groups, jobs teaching English, internships, and lots more!
- Seminars and workshops presented throughout the day, presented by experts in the field, to help you prepare to volunteer, study or work abroad.
- "Careers for Globetrotters" panel discussion, to provide concrete advice on how to prepare for, and obtain, international work – whatever your specialization.
- Programming, in partnership with the Association québécoise des organismes de coopération internationale (AQOCI) for International Development Week, to provide information about opportunities for people of all ages and interests to be meaningfully involved in development.

Drop by anytime during the day to speak with exhibitors, or plan your visit to attend one or more of the seminars, panels and networking sessions.
